PARONYMS & HOMONYMS

The words which are different in meaning or use but are similar in form or derivations are called Paronyms. On the other hand Homonyms are similar in their sound or pronunciation but different in meaning Homonyms (different in spelling and meaning but pronounced alike.

1. Access : approach
Accession : coming to throne
Excess : more than desired

2. Accept : to take
Except : leaving out
Expect : hope

3. Alter : change
Altar : place of worship

4. Assent : agree
Ascent : climbing up

5. Adopt : take up
Adapt : adjust

15. Antique : of ancient times
Antic : odd, tricks

16. Alternate : by turns
Alternative : one of the two choice

17. Artful : clever
Artistic : pertaining to art

18. Artist : one who practices fine art
Artiste : performing

19. Affection : love, kindly, feeling
Affectation : unnatural behavior, Pretence affection

20. Abstain : keep from things (eating, drinking, voting
Refrain : keep from bad habit

21. Avenge : just punishment
Revenve : to punish out of personal Grudge

22. Adulteration : making impure